NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE POWER OF PRIMARY SOURCES!

Join the National Archives in celebrating Archives Month. We invite you to come and learn about our Southern California facility and to explore the resources available to you for research on local and national topics. We invite you to take a tour of our facility, attend one of our presentations about National Archives resources and to make an appointment for individual consultations with an archivist.

Ask-an-Archivist: Student Research Opportunities at NARA

Learn about primary sources available locally and nationwide at NARA. Enjoy the opportunity to discuss potential topics for research papers, theses or dissertations with NARA archivists. Bring your questions! Individual consultations are also available, please contact us.

11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Resources for History Day

Learn how to conduct research in primary sources at NARA. We will provide a tour of our website and discuss online resources for History Day students and teachers. We will also show students how to develop basic research skills to assist them in lifelong learning. Individual consultations are also available, please contact us.

10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

Native Roots: American Indian History & Genealogy

Learn about the resources available for Native Americans interested in working on their own family histories and for academic researchers interested in the history of Native communities. We will provide an overview of the primary sources available at NARA. Geographic focus will be on Southern California and Arizona tribes.

2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
